

K-LOVE serves me well as a resident of the local community. I enjoy the music, it is so uplifting. Its is very calming in traffic, it lifts spirits. It would be devastating for the local community if it were to be taken off the air. I believe it is in the public interest of the community because it is such a positive influence to all who listen.